Citizens crowd hall

Full-time mayor 'outrageous'

"This board seems to have taken things out of the people's hands because they do not think that our input is good enough," said Melody Farhner, one of the outspoken Antioch residents that almost filled the village hall on Monday in response to the ordinance passed by the village board last week creating a full-time mayor at a salary of $28,000 per year plus cost of living increases.

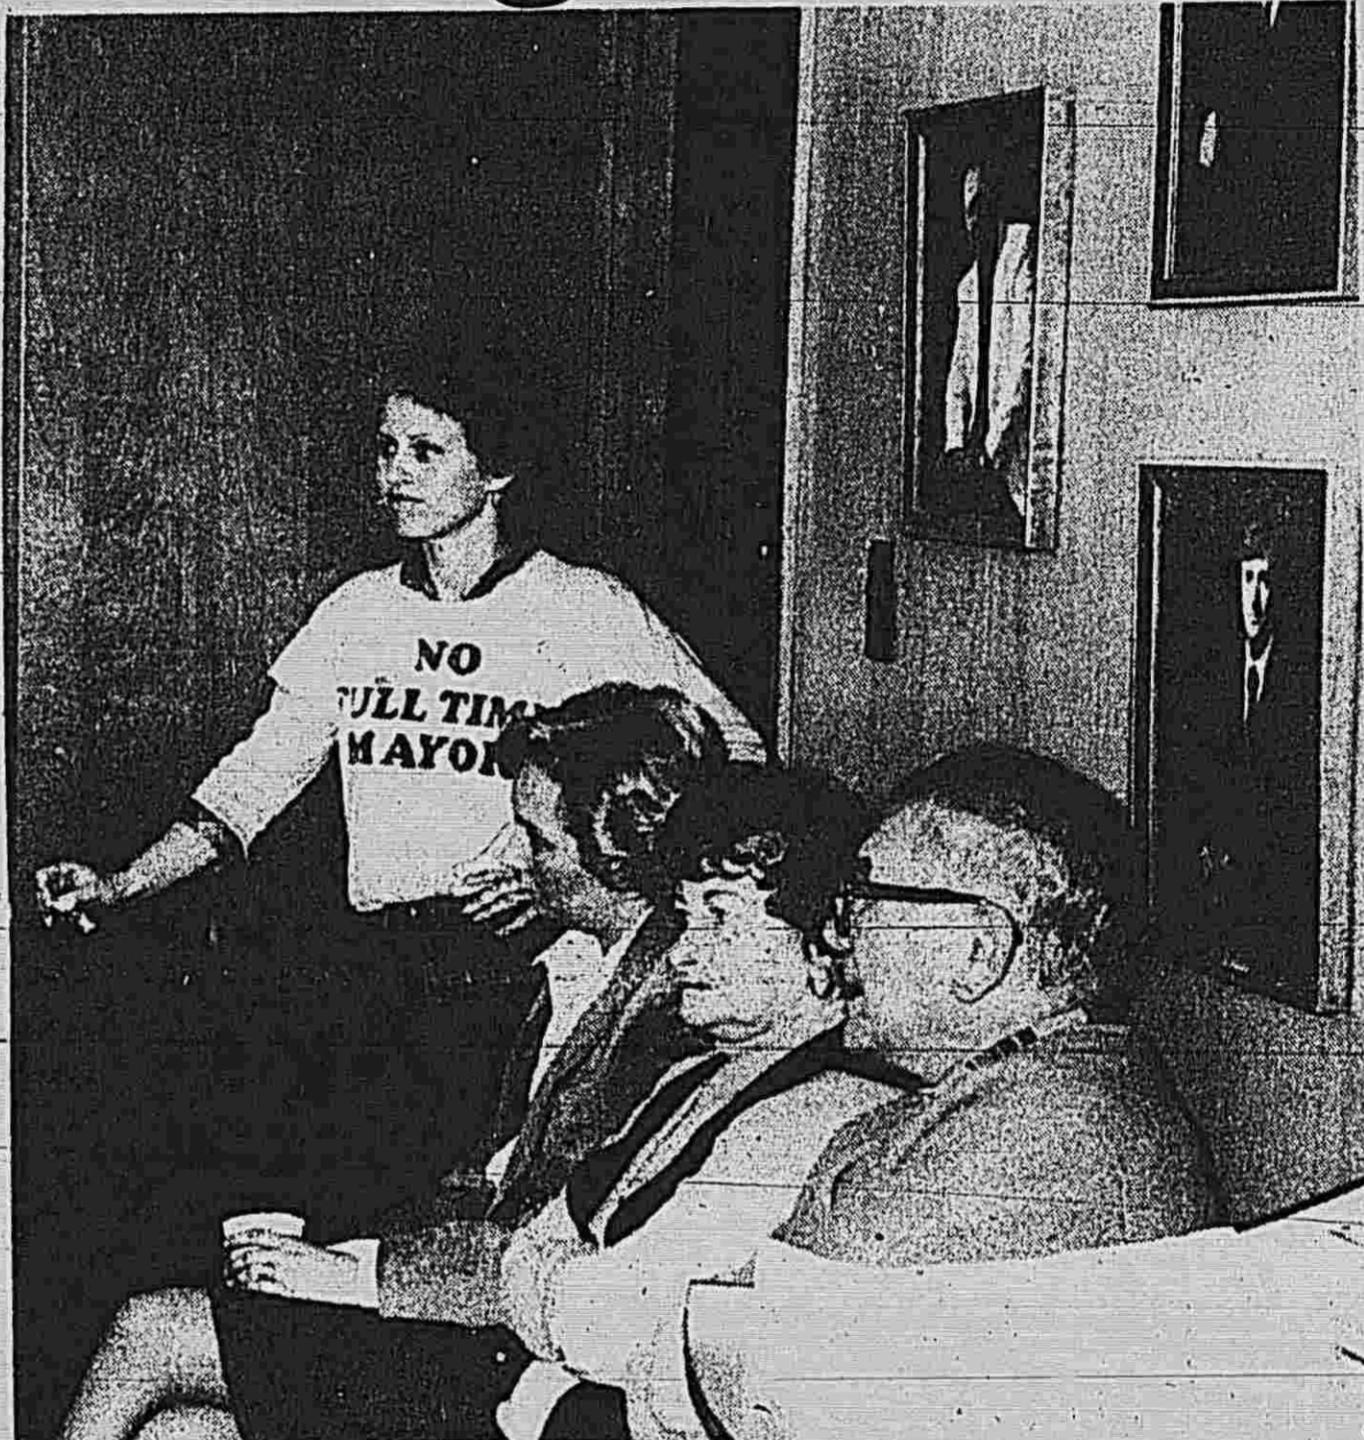

The main questions asked by the upset residents were, "Why does a village of 4,500 people need a full-time mayor?" and "Why did you pass the ordinance without asking the people if they wanted a full time mayor?"

Farhner compared statistics of surrounding village that have full-time mayors or business administrators and much greater populations.

"We have no Great America to justify a full-time business administrator like Gurnee, nor do we have a nuclear power plant to justify a full-time mayor like Zion has," said Fahrner.

Trustee Don Amundsen said, "You can't compare Antioch to other towns of the same population because they don't have the same growth and number of businesses."

Koziol development nears

After several months of discussion and negotiations, the Antioch Village Board approved the annexation of the eight industrial lots located on Anita Dr., owned by Ted, Walter and Harry Koziol.

Now the board has authorized the mayor and the village clerk to sign the approval of the Ram Enterprises Industrial Subdivision Plat subject to approval letters from the Planning Commission and the village engineer.

The Koziol property and Ram Enterprises are one and the same.

In the annexation agreement the village, having already clarified that part of the property was undevelopable because it was in the floodplain, acknowledged that this extension of the village limits would increase tax revenue for the village and "enhance and promote the general welfare of the village" and also increase employment opportunities in the area, when and if the acreage is developed for industrial purposes.

The Koziols, former owners of the Charmglow Co., have already stated that they intend to move a barbecue parts factory to the site.

With development plans incomplete, it is not known what other types of industry may also be brought onto the site.

Santa comes to Antioch

The Christmas season will officially begin in Antioch on the day that is the traditional start of the Yule festivities, the Friday after Thanksgiving.

At 7 p.m. on Nov. 28 the village tree decorating will commence and at 7:20 p.m. Santa will arrive in town, at the village hall to be exact.

Ten minutes later, at 7:30 p.m., the front of the village hall will be ablaze with the glow of the lighting of the Village Christmas Tree.

Then at 7:45 p.m. the first of the Friday night pre-Christmas hayrides will start.

All these activities have been planned in cooperation with the Retail Group of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

But the holiday fun in Antioch will be just beginning as Santa will be at his house every Friday evening and Saturday and so will the carolers that will be singing on the streets of Antioch, filling the air with the real meaning of Christmas.

And besides being open extra hours for your convenience many of the stores in Antioch will show some real old fashioned hospitality by offering you warm refreshments during what promises to be a cold and brisk shopping season.

Don't forget the Home Decorating Contest, open to all residents of the village. There will be a top prize of $100 and two runner up prizes of $50 each for those whose homes best exemplify Antioch's Christmas spirit.

At the same time, though, the Antioch Zoning Commission and the Lake County of Antioch is only 4500 but the town services 15,000 to 20,000 people for shopping etc. The young people come into town creating problems for the police department, and the public works and maintenance departments have to take care of the streets all of these people travel on. All of this puts more demands on the village government." There were references to dirty politics and inferences that the ordinance was passed after the three tax referendums were slated for the spring ballot not giving the people a chance to react to the full time mayor proposal.

Mayor Mike Haley said, "First of all the position of mayor was never established as a part time one, what we are talking here is salary."

In answer to the repeated question whether the board would consider changing their minds if enough people signed a petition Haley said, "We do not have government by referendum in Illinois, this board could have hired a village administrator and he would be on the payroll today and you would still be paying a mayor $5,000 a year."

Haley was referring to the fact that his $2,000 a year salary had been raised to $5,000 effective after the election, a move voided by the ordinance amended creating the full time position at $28,000.

"How many hours a week do you put in?" Haley was asked, to which he answered approximately 30.

"Then you are underpaid," said Fahner.

Joe Vieth, Antioch resident whose face is a familiar one around the village hall since he is present at almost all of the committee and board meetings, interposed in the board's behalf.

Vieth said that if the people would come to the meetings more often they would know what was going on.

"My taxes have doubled since 1971, there's going to be a sewer extension that will cost either $5 million or $17 million. Someone has to bring in tax revenue from outside, whatever you call him, a salesman or a mayor, or 50 percent of the people in this room will have to move out of Antioch because of the high taxes."

Haley went on to explain that the board had considered the amount of time involved in conducting a $3 million business organization with future development in mind when they passed the ordinance.

He also pointed out the need for someone who has the time to do the legwork to bring more businesses and industry into Antioch to help alleviate the residential tax burden now and in the future.

Trustee Mabel Lou Weber said, "I was against a full time mayor six months ago but in the time I have been on the board I've realized that we need a firm leader who is knowledgeable in all the village departments. We especially need to get industry into Antioch."

Trustee Ronald Cunningham answered the question on whether the board would consider signed petitions as a mandate to change their minds and rescind the ordinance with, "We would have to then check with the lawyer to see if it would now be legal to allow the people to vote on the question."

Haley listed the recent industrial annexations and future development as more reasons necessitating a full-time mayor, saying, "I have been negotiating to bring in a commercial complex into the village."

Claudet Skvarce and Farhner again asked why the board didn't bring the proposal in front of the people and explain their reasoning on the issue before passing the ordinance.

They both repeatedly tried to get an answer from someone on the board as to whether or not they would consider letting the people's vote make the final decision and both seemed to leave feeling that they had not gotten an answer to this question.

Haley ended the discussion by pounding his gavel saying; "The board understands your position."

State Bank's open house draws many area residents

The State Bank of Antioch held a very successful Open House celebration Nov. 18-19, with countless area residents attending. While touring the bank's new, greatly enlarged facilities, visitors entered their names in several drawings for fabulous prizes, received free gifts, and enjoyed delicious refreshments.

Children received helium-filled balloons and were delightfully entertained by the very talented Cricket The Clown.

Winners of the drawings were picked at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening by Jim McMullen, Honorary Director of the bank and former Antioch mayor.

Winner of the Grand Prize "Trip For Two" to either The Bahamas, Acapulco, or Disney World, was Lori Aerne, who has chosen to go to The Bahamas.

Winner of the Panasonic microwave oven was Tom Milowski; and Jen Sodman won the Zenith color tv.

A special drawing was held for "Tots thru 17 Years", and five-year-old Natalie Wold won a Panasonic tv.

Drawings were also held in three different areas of the bank; bookkeeping, commercial loans, and installment loans.

Winners of those drawings were Uldine Wells, who won a Canon card calculator; Marie Wells, who won a $50 savings bond; and Connie Fisher, who won a Panasonic clock-radio.

The Bank wishes to thank all who took the time to stop in and visit, this was truly a very successful two-day event, marking the splendid growth of The State Bank, which began serving the community in 1894.

Sequoits open against three tough top teams

The Antioch Sequoit varsity basketball team will have a real baptism of fire as they take to the courts for their season openers at the Barrington Thanksgiving Tournament in Barrington, at 8:30 p.m., on Wednesday, Nov. 26.

All three teams that the Sequoits are slated to come up against are tough ones, beginning with the host team themselves, the Barrington Broncos, whose fast break will challenge the Antioch defense.

"We have to contain them and match or beat them on the boards," says the Sequoit Coach Roger Andrews.

The second round of the tournament will have the Sequoits pitted against one of the leading North Suburban Conference contenders, the Libertyville Wildcats.

Both teams have a size advantage and both have a number of returning lettermen.

But there's no rest for the Sequoits as their final opponents will be the highly rated team, Crown of Carpenterville, a team made up of all but two seniors and a potential all-stater.

Coach Andrews says that he has confidence that the Sequoits will have a lot to be thankful for during the Thanksgiving holiday because he expects them to make a good showing.

Young Sequoit grapplers gearing up for season

This year's Antioch High School varsity wrestlers will be hard pressed to match last year's 17-7-0 overall and 5-1 conference record that included a second place Northwest Suburban finish and 15th place in the Illinois High School Assn. class AA State Tournament.

Gone from last year's team are two of Antioch's finest wrestlers, Jon Gibson and Dave Unrein.

Unrein was 38-6-0 including championships in five major tournaments and an appearance in the state tournament. Unrein is now wrestling for the University of Minnesota.

JON GIBSON graduated last year as Antioch's winningest wrestler and holds the state record for most career wins in Illinois history — 151. Gibson finished second in the state tournament and is now wrestling for the Tigers of Louisiana State University at 126 pounds.

Antioch is returning six lettermen led by seniors Ted Bessette, Jeff Canella and Dan Larsen. Sophomores George Bessette, Tad DeRousse and Dave Manning are also returning sporting varsity letters.

Bill Carney, Tim Curtis and John Wohlfeld also saw varsity action for the Sequoits last year.

Antioch will need inspirational leadership from these seniors as the younger Sequoits mature.

TED BESETTE appears to be a fixture in the 185 pound weight class with occasional duty at heavyweight.

The solid senior was an all conference football player, starting at defensive tackle on the Sequoit gridiron. This sound senior brings his tough physical style into his final year with 25 wins recorded his junior year.

The Sequoit matmen are young this year and coach Ted DeRousse calls them his "Kiddie Corps."

"Kiddie Corps" is headed by sophomores Tad DeRousse, 30-9-3 last year on varsity; up from 98 pounds to 112 pounds, Dave Manning; 8-16 up from 105 to 119 pounds, George Bessette; 26-11 up from 145 to 155 pounds and Bill Carney; 3-7 at 167 pounds.

POSSIBLE HELP is expected by two outstanding freshmen, Steve Case at 119 or 126 pounds and Andy Lehn at 138 or 145 pounds, who were second and first respectively in the kids state tournament last year as eighth graders.

These young Sequoits will have their hands full as they are in a weight class normally dominated by juniors and seniors.

The biggest problems to be faced in the early season by the Antioch coaches are the beginning and end of the line-up.

Ninety-eight pounds has no experienced wrestlers and junior heavyweight Rich Schlarbaum is temporarily sidelined by a broken toe.

Gloria: 'Thanks, I think'

by GLORIA DAVIS

It's that time of year again when all Americans feel obliged to be in a thankful frame of mind.

Thanksgiving is one of the purely American holidays, with the day of the greatful pilgrims, running neck and neck with that of Tom Jefferson and July 4, for top honors in the patriotic celebration popularity polls.

So as we bow our heads around turkey laden tables this year and give thanks to the Almighty for the love of the family that surrounds us, what health we enjoy and the material comforts that we possess, I, for one, am also going to give thanks for his almighty wisdom in not burdening me with certain things thus making me a much stronger person than those so blessed.

Thanks for not plaguing me with the beauty of Elizabeth Taylor because You knew that the consistently negative answers from my mirror would teach me to handle rejection.

Thanks for not bestowing Sophia Loren's body on me because You knew that feeling guilty every time I bite into a chocolate eclair would give me strength of character.

Thanks for not making me wealthy because you knew that my marriage, which has survived my many driving mishaps, probably wouldn't have, since a husband who understands my driving a 67 Pontiac into a tree in order not to hit a chipmunk might not be as patient after the second or third Rolls Royce bit the dust.

You also knew that a person who ends up with three or four single $2 earrings, of various designs, every week just couldn't handle a carte blanc at Tiffany's.

And in giving Jack Lelaine all that health You knew you were giving me the luxury of complaining about an ache or pain here and there.

Thanks for not giving me Einstein's brain because You knew how I love popularity, most of which I've gained because everyone loves to have a friend dumber than they are to bolster their ego.

But to tell the truth, I wouldn't really mind if you'd let up on all this kindness for just a month or two next year and send me just a few of these blessings, oh just temporarily mind you.

I really would just like to try them on for size and I'm sure I'd be even more thankful to be just plain old me on that November Thursday in 1981.

Young: 'Real estate market isn't just good, it's great!'

Who says the real estate market isn't good? Not Sharon Young, realtor associate, who is with Century 21 Michael Warren and Co. in Antioch.

She will tell you, "it isn't just good, it is great."

In the month of October she sold nine units with a dollar volume of $450,000. Mrs. Young has now sold over $1 million in volume in her first 10 months as a Realtor Associate.

Sharon, who lives with her husband Mike in Antioch, joined Century 21, Michael Warren & Co. in Jan., 1980.

"I decided I wanted to make a change in my life and after weighing all sides, found that joining the world of real estate was for me," stated Sharon.

"Being able to plan my time and knowing that I will be well compensated for the time I spend working was really what sold me on the idea."

"Whether the people I have helped have been first-time buyers, 'empty nesters' or they were transferred into this area, and referred to our office, it has been exciting to help them all."

The variety in requirements has been a challenge, but being able to share with people the realization of a dream and showing them the advantages of owning a home has given me a great deal of satisfaction."

SWEET ADELINE'S

Lake County Chapter of Sweet Adelines invites you to a guest night, Monday, Dec. 1, at 8 p.m. at Faith Methodist Church, 408 McAreer, Waukegan. If you like barbershop harmony and you like to sing, join them for an evening of fun and fellowship! For information call Betty Cecil, 566-6517.

"What really helped me meet these challenges," Sharon explained, "was the outstanding training given me, as it is to everyone who is affiliated with Century 21 Michael Warren and Co. and the many and varied materials provided for you to meet the needs of your clients."

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By SALOME

FOR WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY DEC. 1, 1980
If your birthday occurs this week ...

The New Moon's rise favors new chances
To plan new goals and seek new romances

Aries Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 Mars
The Arian Ram isn't sheepish in personal matters. Where money's concerned, though, better use more "care" than "dare" to avoid being fleeced. Tuesday's a big good news day.

Taurus Apr. 20 - May 20 Venus
Unexpected news won't throw the Taurean Bull. It could be that long-awaited opportunity. Love's in the air. A smart bull won't waste time pawing the ground. Good grounds for expecting good things.

Gemini May 21 - June 20 Mercury
Like the Gemini Twins, good luck comes in pairs this week. All propositions (for love and money) spark interest. Trust your keen instincts to say "yes" only to the best offers. Avoid daydreaming the week away.

Cancer June 21 - July 22 Moon
New Moon on the 7th can make a usually sensible Cancerian Moon Child do something unusual. Still, what a great excuse to have some fun. A Piscean keeps that promise. Polish the silver and have a party.

Leo July 23 - Aug. 22 Sun
Lucky Leos roar in delight as financial prospects soar out of sight. It can be an even more purrfect week for Leos and Leonas who meet the right Scorpions and Aquarians. Casual friendships can become important.

Virgo Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 Mercury
Virgins are finally on the verge of reaping the rewards for all that hard work. Answers will start coming back to your inquiries. A Sagittarian wants to ask a personal question. Be bold. Dare to answer it honestly.

Libra Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 Venus
The New Moon on the 7th could tip the usually well-balanced Libran. But don't fight it. Enjoy it. A bit of "moonshine" could give you a needed lift. Mate has a great idea. Take a chance and say yes to good fun.

Scorpio Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 Pluto
You finally get a chance to squelch an envious coworker. But don't use up all the sting in your Scorpio's tail. Save most of the charge to put new zing into old relationships. It holds new surprises for you.

Sagittarius Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 Jupiter
You may be the strong, silent type. But you'll have to say something when that usually shy Libran finally opens the conversation. Aim for that promotion at work. It can be yours. Tell yourself you got it made.

Capricorn Dec. 22 - Jan. 19 Saturn
Capricornic Goats can really kick up their heels this week. Business deals offer interesting terms. Ex-friend becomes new friend again. A Taurus beckons romance. (Oh, you kid!) Expect to get that long-awaited call.

Aquarius Jan. 20 - Feb. 18 Uranus
Cool Aquarian Water Carriers take note: Ardent Aries can change the climate quickly. In business, Aquarian good sense prevails over attempts to exert pressures. A so-called friend makes demands on you.

Pisces Feb. 19 - Mar. 20 Neptune
Piscean Fishes will avoid anything that looks too good to be true this week. Make sure before leaping at the bait. Love, though, can be a "net" gain for Saturday night. You know a secret. Keep it, though, for now.
